The Teaching Geography self paced course is designed around Annenberg/CPB Professional Development Workshops. Offering a strong foundation in geography content along with teaching skills that are outlined in the National Geography Standards, this course answers questions about determining city location, people migration, and places as influences on the spread of disease. Guided by geography experts' commentary, eight video lessons engage teachers in profiling locations around the globe as well as observing a myriad of classroom activities.

All class meetings will take place through distance learning. The instructor and participants will communicate via Moodle — the course platform on the Internet. Assignments and discussion forums will be facilitated in Moodle.
